Study at office

MOCK INTERVIEW

As a recruitment interview measure, we will have a mock interview in a real office with the cooperation of the company. Interviews are conducted with actual businessmen in the actual office, not in the classroom, so you can develop your interviewing skills in a sense of tension that is as close to the actual recruitment interview as possible.

1 COMPANY VISIT

Use the extension phone at the reception to tell your visiting purpose.

2 RECEPTION

Tell receptionist name of your interviewer, she will take you to the interview room.

3 ENTER THE ROOM

Knock on the door, then entre the interview room.

4-1 Group Interview

Your group interview starts. The interviewer is the actual businessmen at the company.

4-2 Individual Interview

You will also experience an individual interview.

5 FEEDBACK

After the interview, students receive the feedback from interviewer.

Group work

TASKS FROM COMPANY

Students are going to work in groups and make presentations on the tasks received from companies. While looking at things like the Japanese market and consumer needs, students will work together as a group to tackle the issues.

Study at a company

COMPANY VISIT

Students visit the best known companies and feel the atmosphere of the business site. At the company, not only talk to employers, but students experience the true business way as the business card exchange and learn business etiquette.
